The Project

Macmahon was awarded a five year mining contract for the Boston Shaker underground mine. The first cut occurred on 8 May, 2019 with operations currently in progress.

The Tropicana project, which is a joint venture between AngloGold Ashanti Ltd (70% and manager) and Independence Group NL (30%), is already Macmahon's largest mining contract in Australia.

The project is located 330 kilometres north east of Kalgoorlie on the edge of Western Australia's Great Victoria Desert. Macmahon's scope of work includes underground mining services, including site establishment, portal development of a decline and sub level development that will include stoping.
